

Willem Larsen, an engaging speaker and writer, inspires and educates audiences of all ages on issues connecting to a sense of place and our lost heritage of Spoken Tradition.

THE COLLEGE OF
Mythic Cartography

EVERY PLACE a Riddle, EVERY
RIDDLE a Poem, EVERY POEM
a Spirit, EVERY SPIRIT a Place.

THE COLLEGE OF Mythic Cartography

A SUPPER OF RAVEN'S WINGS: RIDDLES, DREAMS, MYTHS AND LANDSCAPES

November 4th and November 5th, 2006

Join instructor Willem Larsen in walking the web that weaves ancient Spoken Traditions with the human experience in the mystery and beauty of the land. Explore how far your senses can reach, the capacity of your memory to re-experience past realities with astounding clarity, your intrinsic ability to speak and write fluent poetry of place, and the traditions of exploring mystery both physically through animal tracking and imaginatively through the solving and creating of riddles. Gain knowledge about a specific sampling of local plants, trees, and animals, through the applied use of your skills in Spoken Tradition. Edible, medicinal, ecological, metaphorical, and survival uses and relationships with our neighbors in the living world all come together in this workshop which reawakens the Bard in you.

The workshop runs 9am-6pm, Saturday November 4th and 9am-5pm Sunday November 5th, 2006. Location in Portland, Oregon.

Tuition costs $125 per student, if we receive it before October 10th. $165 after. Enrollment limited to 12 students. Registration closes Wednesday noon, November 1st. For those in need of financial assistance, check the website for the opportunity to solve the riddle that will earn you a full scholarship...

Contact Willem for more info:

mythic.cartographer@gmail.com

www.mythic-cartography.org

503.957.7429